CHANGING
AUSTRALIAN EDUCATION

Alan Reid AM is Professor Emeritus of Education at the University of South Australia. Long recognised as one of Australia's leading educators, he has won many awards for his distinguished contributions to education, including the Gold Medal of the Australian Council of Educational Leaders.

One of the most highly regarded educational leaders in Australia, Alan Reid, argues it's time to reconsider the purposes of education, the capacities we need for the future, and the strategies that will get us there. He outlines a new narrative for Australian schooling that is futures-focused and prizes flexibility, adaptability, collaboration and agility, with students, teachers and school communities at centre-stage.

Join the team from Future Schools in conversation with Alan Reid as we explore issues facing many teachers in Australia and debate alternatives can we explore in order to promote a new paradigm for the future of schooling. A webinar event not to be missed!
