

Valerie Hannon

Wednesday 2nd November
6:00–6:45pm AEDT

Valerie Hannon is a former educator, global thought-leader, co-author of recently published Futureschool: How Schools Around the World are applying learning design principles for a new era and Thrive: The Purpose of Schools in a Changing World.

In our Future Schools webinar conversation Valerie will lead our discussion on what she refers to as “The challenge of a generation”, drawing on her work with existing future-focused schools across the globe and insights the pandemic has presented for the imperative to create schools fit for all learners.

Valerie Hannon is a global thought leader, inspiring systems to re-think what educational ‘success’ will mean in the C 21st. The co-founder of both Innovation Unit and of the Global Education Leaders Partnership. Valerie is a radical voice for change, whilst grounded in a deep understanding of how education systems currently work.
